Dear David Overman,

Approval letter for both the Electricity Networks Company Ltd & Independent Power Networks Ltd's Distribution Flexibility Services Procurement Statements as part of the requirements of Electricity Distribution Licence Condition 31E.

Thank you for submitting your letter and the Distribution Flexibility Services Procurement Statement for review and approval. With this letter, the Authority<sup>1</sup> acknowledges that your Company does not intend to procure Distribution Flexibility Services ('flexibility services') from 1 April 2023 to 31 March 2024.

In our guidance published on 14th February 2022, we defined the key reporting requirements we expect licensees to report on to meet the conditions set out within Electricity Distribution Standard Licence Condition 31E. We also reiterated the requirements of SLC C31E.10 that, should a licensee not intend to, or reasonably expect not to, procure or use flexibility services in the following regulatory year, the licensee must notify this decision to the Authority in writing. You are under an obligation under SLC C31E.12 and C31E.13 to notify the Authority should there be changes to your flexibility procurement plans in the course of the year.

SLC 31E ensures that DNOs and IDNOs must procure flexibility services, when it is economic and efficient to do so, and to run efficient and safe electricity distribution networks. Based
