

4

Make homes more energy efficient

By using energy more efficiently, you can save more money on their bills.

You can contact your supplier's dedicated energy efficiency line - the telephone number will be on gas or electricity bills.

Suppliers can provide information about the grants that are available, and how you can apply for help to make homes more energy efficient.

