Dear Colleague,

Request from Thanet Offshore Wind Limited for a Direction under Standard Condition 14 (“Compulsory Acquisition of Land etc”) of the Electricity Generation Licence

The Gas and Electricity Markets Authority (“the Authority”)<sup>1</sup> is considering an application for an electricity generation licence made by Thanet Offshore Wind Limited (“TOW”) on 29 March 2005.

On 18 May 2005, TOW submitted a request for the Authority to make a direction providing for the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 7 of Standard Licence Condition 14 (“Compulsory Acquisition of Land etc”) (“SLC 14”) to have effect in that generation licence.

This letter explains the background to TOW’s request and invites views on the Authority’s preliminary view that it should issue the direction sought.

Background to SLC 14

Paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 refer to and set out the purposes for which the powers and rights conferred under Schedule 3<sup>2</sup> of the Electricity Act 1989 shall have effect. Schedule 3 provides for the Secretary of State to authorise a licence holder to compulsorily purchase any land for any purpose connected with the carrying on of the activities which he is authorised by his licence to carry on. Where the land in question belongs to another licence holder, the Authority must give its consent to the Secretary of State’s authorisation.

The purposes referred to in SLC 14 (in paragraph 6 specifically) are:

- (a) the construction or extension of a generating station;

- (b) activities connected with the construction or extension of a generating station or connected with the operation of a generating station; and
- (c) the installation, maintenance, removal or replacement of electric lines, and electrical plant associated with them, connecting a generating station with:
  - (i) a transmission system; or
  - (ii) a distribution system.

Therefore, under SLC 14 licensees can make a request of the Secretary of State for the compulsory purchase of land in connection with the activities listed above (detailed in paragraph 6 of SLC 14). For the purpose of clarification, the Authority can give effect to the powers and requirements of SLC 14 in specific electricity generation licences; i.e. it can switch the condition on or off, but it does not have the vires to take a decision in respect of whether the land in question can be compulsorily purchased. Any such decisions fall to the Secretary of State, except where the land in question belongs to another licence holder, as detailed previously, under Schedule 3 (2) (1) the Authority must in these situations give its consent to the Secretary of State's authorisation.

Paragraphs 1 and 2 of SLC 14 specify how paragraphs 5 to 7 can be given effect. Paragraph 1 of SLC 14 relates to the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 being brought into effect by the Secretary of State.<sup>3</sup> Paragraph 2 of SLC 14 sets out that the Authority may issue a direction that the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 shall have effect for a period specified in the direction and that this period may be extended by a further direction of the Authority. Therefore those licensees where paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 were brought into effect by the Secretary of State may not include an expiry date, whereas those licences where paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 have been brought into effect by the Authority will include an expiry date.

Details of those licences in which paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 have been given effect without an expiry date being specified, those licences in which paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 have been given effect including an expiry date and those licences where these paragraphs are not in effect are available on the electronic public register<sup>4</sup> on the Ofgem website.<sup>5</sup>

TOW's request

In support of its application, TOW considers that the area of land which it seeks to purchase is small, the current plan being to lay 2.5-3.0 km of 132kV underground cabling consisting of two circuits terminating at the existing substation at Richborough power station. TOW has confirmed its intention to attempt to acquire the land by negotiation with the relevant landowner(s) rather than by seeking authorisation for compulsory acquisition from the Secretary <sup>3</sup> Paragraph 1 of SLC 14 sets out that where the Secretary of State provides by a scheme made under Schedule 7 to the Utilities Act 2000 for SLC 14 to have effect within a generation licence, the provisions contained in paragraphs 5 to 7 will apply to the licensee from the date the scheme takes effect until such date as may be specified in the scheme. The last day for the Secretary of State to exercise the scheme-making power was the day before section 30 of the Utilities Act 2000 came into force i.e. 30th September 2001.

of State. However, TOW considers that it would be helpful to prepare for the possibility of it seeking a compulsory purchase order.

Therefore, TOW is requesting the Authority give effect to paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 in its electricity generation licence. For the purpose of clarification, TOW is not requesting the Authority's views or permission in respect of any actual compulsory acquisition of land, as discussed previously, any such permission would be a question for the Secretary of State.

Ofgem's preliminary view

The Authority's preliminary view is that it should make a direction to give effect to paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 of the electricity generation licence to be granted to TOW. It proposes that such direction should be for a period of five years.

Ofgem considers that this preliminary view is consistent with its decision in respect of the request from British Energy for the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 to be given effect in the electricity generation licence of British Energy Generation Ltd.<sup>6</sup> In that decision, Ofgem considered that it was appropriate, "subject to the outcome of any review Ofgem conducts in relation to the application of the powers, rights and obligations conferred on licensees in the electricity generation licence, to limit the duration for which paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 are given effect in the electricity generation licence of British Energy Generation Ltd to five years from 9 February 2005".

Ofgem has yet to undertake the wider electricity generation licence review referred to in the British Energy decision letter and therefore considers that at this time, for the benefit of consistency, it would also be appropriate for TOW to be granted access to the powers that it has requested under SLC 14.

Views invited

Ofgem would welcome the views of interested parties on the Authority's preliminary view that the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 7 of SLC 14 should be given effect in the electricity generation licence of TOW for five years.

Interested parties are requested to submit their views by 5pm on 4 October 2005.

SCHEDULE 3

Compulsory Acquisition of Land etc. by Licence Holders

Part I Powers of Acquisition

1.—(1) Subject to paragraph 2 below, the Secretary of State may authorise a licence holder to purchase compulsorily any land required for any purpose connected with the carrying on of the activities which he is authorised by his licence to carry on.

(2) In this paragraph and paragraph 2 below "land" includes any right over land (other than, in Scotland, a right to abstract, divert and use water); and the power of the Secretary of State under this paragraph includes power to authorise the acquisition of rights over land by creating new rights as well as acquiring existing ones.

2.—(1) No order shall be made under paragraph 1 above authorising the compulsory purchase of land belonging to another licence holder except with the consent of the Authority.

(2) The Authority shall not give his consent under this paragraph if—

(a) the land is being used by the licence holder to whom it belongs for the purposes of an installation necessary for the carrying on of the activities which he is authorised by his licence to carry on; or

(b) it appears to the Authority that the land will be so used and that the use will commence, or any necessary planning permission or consent under section 36 or 37 of this Act will be applied for, within the period of five years beginning with the date of the application for his consent.

(3) The Secretary of State may by order provide that sub-paragraph (2) above shall have effect as if for the period mentioned in paragraph (b) there were substituted such other period as may be specified in the order.

(4) A consent under this paragraph which is not acted on within the period of six months beginning with the day on which it is granted shall cease to have effect at the end of that period.

(5) In this paragraph—
"the Planning Act" means the [Town and Country Planning Act 1990]<sup>7</sup> or the [Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997] Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997<sup>8</sup>;
"planning permission" means a planning permission granted under Part III of the Planning Act.

<sup>8</sup> Words in brackets and italics inserted by section 4, Para 44 (1) Schedule 2 Planning (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1997

3.—(1) This paragraph applies to land which—
(a) for the purposes of the Acquisition of Land Act 1981, is or forms part of a common, open space or a fuel or field garden allotment; or

(b) for the purposes of the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947, is or forms part of a common or open space.

(2) Where for any purpose a licence holder has acquired, or proposes to acquire, any land to which this paragraph applies, or any right over any such land, and other land is required for the purpose of being given in exchange for the land or right in question, the Secretary of State may authorise the licence holder to purchase that other land compulsorily, or he may acquire it by agreement.

4. Where a licence holder has acquired any land by virtue of paragraph 1 above, he shall not dispose of that land or of any interest in or right over it except with the consent of the Authority.

Part II Procedure, Compensation etc. (England and Wales)

Application of Acquisition of Land Act 1981 generally

5.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, the Acquisition of Land Act 1981 shall apply to a compulsory purchase by a licence holder of land or rights in England and Wales; and Schedule 3 to that Act shall apply in the case of a compulsory acquisition by a licence holder of a right by the creation of a new right.

(2) Section 16 of, and paragraph 3 of Schedule 3 to, the said Act of 1981 (statutory undertakers' land excluded from compulsory purchase) shall not apply where the land or rights in question belong to another licence holder.

New rights: general adaptation of Compulsory Purchase Act 1965

6. The Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 shall have effect with the modifications necessary to make it apply to a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right in England and Wales by the creation of a new right as it applies to the compulsory acquisition of land, so that, in appropriate contexts, references in that Act to land are to be read as referring, or as including references, to the right acquired or to be acquired, or to land over which the right is or is to be exercisable, according to the requirements of the particular context.

New rights: specific adaptations of Act of 1965

7. Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 6 above, Part I of the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 shall apply in relation to a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right in England and Wales by the creation of a new right with the modifications specified in paragraphs 8 to 13 below.

8. For section 7 of that Act (measure of compensation) there shall be substituted the following section—

"7. In assessing the compensation to be paid by the acquiring authority under this Act regard shall be had not only to the extent (if any) to which the value of the land over which the right is to be acquired is depreciated by the acquisition of the right but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by the owner of the land by reason of its severance from other land of his, or injuriously affecting that other land by the exercise of the powers conferred by this or the special Act."

9. For subsection (1) of section 8 of that Act (protection for vendor against severance of house, garden, etc.) there shall be substituted the following subsections—

"(1) No person shall be required to grant any right over part only—

(a) of any house, building or manufactory; or

(b) of a park or garden belonging to a house,

if he is willing to sell the whole of the house, building, manufactory, park or garden, unless the Lands Tribunal determine that—

(i) in the case of a house, building or manufactory, the part over which the right is proposed to be acquired can be made subject to that right without material detriment to the house, building or manufactory; or

and if the Lands Tribunal so determine, the Tribunal shall award compensation in respect of any loss due to the acquisition of the right, in addition to its value; and thereupon the party interested shall be required to grant to the acquiring authority that right over the part of the house, building, manufactory, park or garden.

(1A) In considering the extent of any material detriment to a house, building or manufactory, or any extent to which the amenity or convenience of a house is affected, the Lands Tribunal shall have regard not only to the right which is to be acquired over the land, but also to any adjoining or adjacent land belonging to the same owner and subject to compulsory purchase."

10. The following provisions of that Act (being provisions stating the effect of a deed poll executed in various circumstances where there is no conveyance by persons with interests in the land)— section 9(4) (refusal by owners to convey);

Schedule 1, paragraph 10(3) (owners under incapacity);

Schedule 2, paragraph 2(3) (absent and untraced owners); and

Schedule 4, paragraphs 2(3) and 7(2) (common land), shall be so modified as to secure that, as against persons with interests in the land which are expressed to be overridden by the deed, the right which is to be compulsorily acquired is vested absolutely in the acquiring authority.

11. Section 11 of that Act (powers of entry) shall be so modified as to secure that, as from the date on which the acquiring authority have served notice to treat in respect of any right, they have power, exercisable in the like circumstances and subject to the like conditions, to enter for the purpose of exercising that right (which shall be deemed for this purpose to have been created on the date of service of the notice); and sections 12 (penalty for unauthorised entry) and 13 (entry on sheriff's warrant in the event of obstruction) shall be modified correspondingly.

12. Section 20 of that Act (protection for interests of tenants at will etc.) shall apply with the modifications necessary to secure that persons with such interests as are mentioned in that section are compensated in a manner corresponding to that in which they would be compensated on a compulsory acquisition of that land, but taking into account only the extent (if any) of such interference with such an interest as is actually caused, or likely to be caused, by the exercise of the right in question.

13. Section 22 of that Act (protection of acquiring authority's possession where by inadvertence an estate, right or interest has not been got in) shall be so modified as to enable the acquiring authority, in circumstances corresponding to those referred to in that section, to continue entitled to exercise the right acquired, subject to compliance with that section as respects compensation.

New rights: compensation

14. The enactments in force in England and Wales with respect to compensation for the compulsory purchase of land shall apply with the necessary modifications as respects compensation in the case of a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right by the creation of a new right as they apply to compensation on the compulsory purchase of land and interests in land.

Part III Procedure, Compensation etc. (Scotland)

Application of Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 generally

15.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 shall apply to the compulsory purchase by a licence holder of land or rights in Scotland as if the licence holder were a local authority within the meaning of that Act, and as if this Act had been in force immediately before the commencement of that Act.

(2) Paragraph 10 of the First Schedule to that Act (statutory undertakers' land excluded from compulsory purchase) shall not apply where the land or rights in question belong to another licence holder.

New rights: general application of Act of 1947 and incorporated enactments

16. The Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947, and the enactments incorporated with this Act by virtue of paragraph 15 above and paragraph 1 of the Second Schedule to that Act shall have effect with the modifications necessary to make them apply to a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right in Scotland by the creation of a new right (other than a right to abstract, divert and use water) as they apply to the compulsory acquisition of land, so that, in appropriate contexts, references in those enactments and that Act to land are to be read as referring, or as including references, to the right acquired or to be acquired, or to land over which the right is or is to be exercisable, according to the requirements of the particular context.

New rights: specific adaptations of Act of 1947

17. Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 16 above, Part III of the First Schedule to the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 (requirement of special parliamentary procedure, and other special provisions, in the case of acquisition of certain descriptions of land) shall apply in relation to a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right in Scotland by the creation of a new right with the modifications specified in paragraphs 18 to 23 below.

18. In paragraph 9 of that Schedule (compulsory purchase affecting land of the National Trust for Scotland) for references to the compulsory purchase of land there shall be substituted references to the compulsory acquisition of rights over land.

19. In paragraph 10 of that Schedule (land of statutory undertakers)—

(a) for the words "land comprised in the order" there shall be substituted the words "land over which a right is to be acquired by virtue of the order";

(b) for the words "purchase of" there shall be substituted the words "acquisition of a right over";

(c) for the words "it can be purchased and not replaced" there shall be substituted the words "the right can be acquired"; and

(d) for sub-paragraph (ii) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph—
"(ii) that any detriment to the carrying on of the undertaking, in consequence of the acquisition of the right, can be made good by the undertakers by the use of other land belonging to, or available for acquisition by, them" .

20. In paragraph 11 of that Schedule (common or open space), for sub-paragraph (1) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph—

"(1) In so far as a compulsory purchase order authorises the acquisition of a right over land forming part of a common or open space, it shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure unless the Secretary of State is satisfied—

(a) that the land, when burdened with that right, will be no less advantageous to those persons in whom it is vested and other persons, if any, entitled to rights of common or other rights, and to the public, than it was before;

(b) that there has been or will be given in exchange for the right additional land which will as respects the persons in whom there is vested the land over which the right is to be acquired, the persons, if any, entitled to rights of common or other rights over that land, and the public, be adequate to compensate them for the disadvantages which result from the acquisition of the right, and that the additional land has been or will be vested in the persons in whom there is vested the land over which the right is to be acquired, and subject to the like rights, trusts and incidents as attach to that land apart from the compulsory purchase order; or

(c) that the land affected by the right to be acquired does not exceed 250 square yards in extent, and that the giving of other land in exchange for the right is unnecessary, whether in the interests of the persons, if any, entitled to rights of common or other rights or in the interests of the public, and certifies accordingly."

21.<sup>9</sup>

22. Paragraph 3(1) of the Second Schedule to the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 shall be so modified as to secure that, as from the date on which the licence holder has served notice to treat in respect of any right, it has power, exercisable in the like circumstances and subject to the like conditions, to enter for the purpose of exercising that right (which shall be deemed for this purpose to have been created on the date of service of the notice).

23. For paragraph 4 of that Schedule (protection for owner against severance of property) there shall be substituted the following paragraphs—

"4. No person shall be required to grant any right over part only—

(a) of any house, building or manufactory; or

(b) of a park or garden belonging to a house,

if he is willing to sell the whole of the house, building, manufactory, park or garden, unless the Lands Tribunal for Scotland determines that—

(i) in the case of a house, building or manufactory, the part over which the right is proposed to be acquired can be made subject to that right without material detriment to the house, building or manufactory; or

and if it so determines, it shall award compensation in respect of any loss due to the acquisition of the right, in addition to its value; and thereupon the party interested shall be required to grant to the acquiring authority that right over the part of the house, building, manufactory, park or garden.

4A. In considering, for the purposes of paragraph 4 above, the extent of any material detriment to a house, building or manufactory, or any extent to which the amenity or convenience of a house is affected, the Lands Tribunal for Scotland shall have regard not only to the right which is to be acquired over the land, but also to any adjoining or adjacent land belonging to the same owner and subject to compulsory purchase."

New rights: specific adaptations of Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845

24. Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 16 above, the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845 shall apply in relation to a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right in Scotland by the creation of a new right with the modifications specified in paragraphs 25 to 28 below.

25. For section 61 of that Act (estimation of compensation) there shall be substituted the following section—

"61. In estimating the purchase money or compensation to be paid by the licence holder under the special Act, in any of the cases aforesaid, regard shall be had not only to the extent (if any) to which the value of the land over which the right is to be acquired is depreciated by the acquisition of the right, but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by the owner of the land by reason of its severance from other land of his, or injuriously affecting that other land by the exercise of the powers conferred by this or the special Act."

26. The following provisions of that Act (being provisions stating the effect of a notarial instrument or of a disposition executed in various circumstances where there is no conveyance by persons with interests in the land)— section 74 (failure by owner to convey);

section 76 (refusal to convey or show title or owner cannot be found);

section 98 (vesting of common land), shall be so modified as to secure that, as against persons with interests in the land over which the right is to be compulsorily acquired, such right is vested absolutely in the licence holder.

27. Sections 114 (compensation to be made to tenants for a year etc.) and 115 (compensation where greater interest than tenant for a year) of that Act shall apply with the modifications necessary to secure that persons with such interests as are mentioned in those sections are compensated in a manner corresponding to that in which they would be compensated on a compulsory acquisition of that land, but taking into account only the extent (if any) of such interference with such an interest as is actually caused, or likely to be caused, by the exercise of the right in question.

28. Sections 117 (protection of promoter of undertaking where by inadvertence an interest in land has not been purchased etc.) and 118 (provisions supplementary to section 117) of that Act shall be so modified as to enable the licence holder, in circumstances corresponding to those referred to in those sections, to continue entitled to exercise the right acquired, subject to compliance with those sections as respects compensation.

New rights: compensation

29. The enactments in force in Scotland with respect to compensation for the compulsory purchase of land shall apply as respects compensation in the case of a licence holder's compulsory acquisition of a right by the creation of a new right (other than a right to abstract, divert and use water) as they apply to compensation on the compulsory purchase of land and interests in land.
